GUEST SPEAKER – Stacy Ryan is an author and podcaster. From completing an ironman at age 36, surviving cancer at age 45, and becoming a widow at age 52; Stacy has been writing and talking about her life, love, and loss. Through hard work, consistency, and dedication, Stacy has been a prime example of what resiliency through hardship looks like. Her positive outlook continues to inspire others during challenging times and has made a huge impact on her healing journey.
